

Annex 2 to Act C of 1997

(Sample of the ballot paper of parliamentary single mandate constituencies)

BALLOT PAPER

The election of Members of Parliament

.....(day) (month)(year)

..... (county)

(constituency number)

Only one candidate may be validly voted for!

- | | | |
|-------------------------|-----------------------|---------------------------------------|
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | independent candidate |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |
| (name of the candidate) | <input type="radio"/> | (name of the nominating organisation) |

Candidates may be voted for by placing two intersecting lines in the circle beside the name of the candidates, for example: X, +

(The ballot paper shall indicate, beside the name of the nominating organisation registered by the court, at its request, the abbreviation, the black-and-white print of the symbol or badge of the nominating organisation. In the event of joint candidates, the ballot paper shall indicate the name of each nominating organisation.)